ELIGIBILITY

- Membership in the Hall of Fame is open to athletes/teams, coaches and builders (officials, administrators, and volunteers) who have shown outstanding excellence in the sport of Athletics
- Nominees must have made a significant contribution to the growth and development of the sport, including their dedication to the highest ideals of competition
- Athlete nominees must have achieved significant success in international / national competition and be retired from international / national competition for a minimum of three years. Athletes may be nominated as individuals or as members of a relay team. Masters athletes may be nominated while still in competition phase.
- Coach nominees must have achieved significant success in international or national competition over a sustained period.
- Builder nominees may be active or inactive at the time of their nomination. Persons nominated as builders must have demonstrated that they have made a significant contribution to the development of the sport over a sustained period.
- Nominees must have held Canadian citizenship or landed immigrant status and Alberta residency over the course of their careers.

NOMINATION

- Nominations will be sought on an annual basis
- A Club or individual may submit nominations in each of the athlete/ team, coach, and builder categories.
- Nominees will be considered for induction in the year nominated, and, if requested by the nominator, for up to two successive years thereafter.
- In the event that a nominee is not selected for induction within the three-year period, the nomination will be declared inactive.

SELECTION

- A Hall of Fame Selection Committee, appointed by the Personnel Committee, will evaluate nominees on the basis of the significance and scope of their achievements, their dedication to their sport, the consistency of their performance, and personal qualities that reflect the values of Athletics Alberta on and off the field.
- A maximum of up to five inductees will be selected annually for induction into the Hall of Fame. The exception is the inaugural year.
- The Selection Committee, after review of the submitted nominations, may solicit additional nominations and support if they feel that one of the following situations exists:
 1. There are no nominations for a particular category
 2. None of the nominations meet the general guidelines
 3. Special circumstances exist whereby a particular person should be given consideration, even if not nominated.
